

Friends of Turweston Church Annual Report 2023

It was a quiet year with only churchyard maintenance and cleaning as our expense totalling £1,521. Overall, together with the market value of investments falling, there was a deficit for the year of £6,812. A new investment strategy has been put into place to hopefully regain the value of investments going forward.

David Miles